Remember those "television greats" — classic dramas and soap operas from the 70s and 80s and comedy that tickled you pink and left you chortling into next week?

We are talking about some of the most popular programmes of all time from the BBC Enterprises and Thames Television libraries.

The great news is that if you are a Super Pack customer you'll have the chance to see your very favourite programmes again on a brand new cable and satellite channel called UK Gold, launched last month.

The service is also available to Standard Pack customers as an optional channel at just £1 a month.

Broadcasting 20 hours a day, from 6am — 2am, UK Gold will feature well-loved golden oldies such as George and Mildred, Porridge, Bless This House and Terry and June in addition to cult comedy such as Bread, The Young Ones, Alexei Sayle's Stuff, Carrott Confidential and Alas Smith & Jones.

Classic drama will include The Duchess of Duke Street, Penmarric, The Onedin Line and Rumpole with popular series such as Casualty, Shoestring, Bergerac and Miss Marple. Children's programming will feature Dr Who, Rainbow, Lassie and The Chronicles of Narnia with a selection of popular TV quiz shows.

Blockbuster films will also feature prominently in the weekend schedule.

UK Gold is a pure entertainment channel and will feature no news, documentaries or current affairs programmes.

UK Gold can be found on channel no. 39. Turn to the What's On pages for this month's programme line-up.

CHRISTMAS

Turkey delight!

'TIS THE SEASON to talk turkey and Simply Delicious Christmas is offering a week of cookery tips and recipes to mull over.

Darina Allen, who runs the internationally famous Ballymaloe Cookery School in Cork, Southern Ireland, is hosting this review of ideas for the traditional Christmas menu. Her belief is that Christmas is a time for family, memories and traditional food.

During the week she prepares and ices a Christmas cake, prepares four starters including pomegranate and pink grapefruit salad.

The main course is, of course, turkey with all the trimmings, including a delicious way of improving the taste of the common sprout.

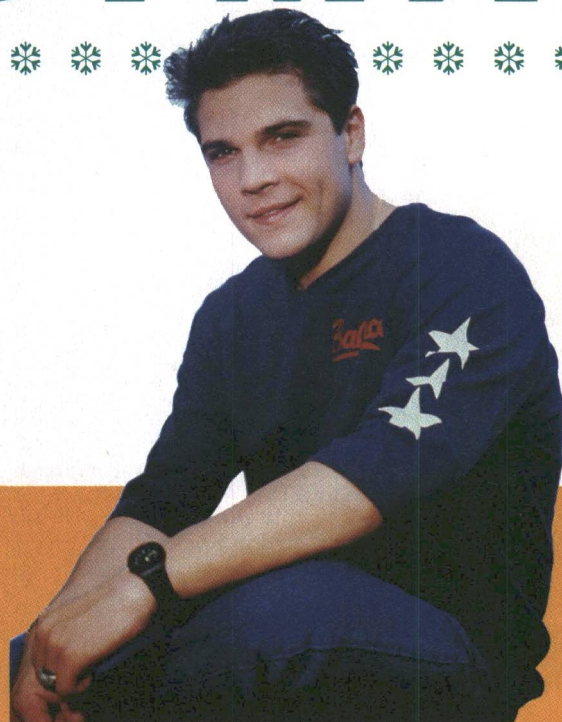

In the final of four programmes Darina prepares mince pies, a chocolate Christmas ice and, for a little warmth, mulled wine. Bon appetit! ■

Christmas is a bit of a drag for Michael!

MIKE WINSOR, the Children's Channel weekend presenter, should look the part during the holiday period. He is dressing up as Buttons, the Ugly Sisters and Cinderella – all at the same time! Sounds brilliant? Oh no it doesn't! Oh yes it does! Other seasonal fare on the channel during Christmas week include animated specials like A Christmas Messenger (narrated by Richard Chamberlain), The Little Crooked Christmas Tree, The Merry Mirthworms Christmas and The Aliens' First Christmas. ■

Max is pure-as-the-driven snow

BRUCE SAMAZAN, the new recruit to Sky One's hit soap E Street, will as usual be a long way from a white Christmas this month.

Bruce, who has acquired pin-up status in Australia as Westside's rookie constable Max Simmons, is visiting his father at his home on Reunion Island in the Indian Ocean.

The 22-year-old actor was born in neighbouring Madagascar, the tropical island that used to be a French colony until a coup in 1973. Bruce told Cable Guide: 'It will be a French Christmas – which I'm really looking forward to – with things like duck. The French make a big deal of Christmas.'

He will be away for six weeks before returning to play the loveable Max, a character Bruce describes as 'a bumblefoot'.

'He's definitely the kind of charming young gentleman that young girls are going to want to take home and show to Mum,' Bruce reveals. 'He's a really sweet character.'

'Romance is something that Max has not experienced highly. Put it this way, he's sweet, young and innocent. He goes to church each Sunday. Every Mum would turn round and say, Ah, he's a sweet little bugger.' But his eagerness to please has already landed Max in trouble. He was reprimanded by the sergeant just minutes into his E Street debut!

Christmas should be a welcome break from all the attention that stardom has lavished on Bruce.

'Mail? Hell yeah! Some weeks I get nearly 100 letters a week,' he says. Women young and old are his main correspondents. 'But sometimes they are as young as two or three! I get scribbled little letters where their Mums have helped them.'

This former builder and model turned actor has interesting plans for 1993. A rap record is one new departure and a film role another. 'There's been a request for me to do a small part in an animated film that's being made out here [Australia] called Thumbelina. I'm playing Mr Mole, which will be a lot of fun.' ■

Star Line-up on Cable!

Gnome advantage for Eddie and Mike

NO, IT'S NOT the new England rugby kit! It's Sky Sport's rugby league presenters Eddie Hemmings and Mike Stephenson. They are getting in the mood for the big Christmas clash that is guaranteed to rescue fans still in the Land of Nod after the holiday revels. Live coverage of St Helens v Wigan on Sunday 27th is the latest round in the battle of the professional game's giants. St Helens may have embarrassed the all-conquering Wigan in the Charity Shield but the champs have since won the Lancashire Cup Final meeting between the two. Ten of the players in Great Britain's starting line-up against Australia in the World Cup Final at Wembley came from these clubs. It is a match to dwarf all others! ■

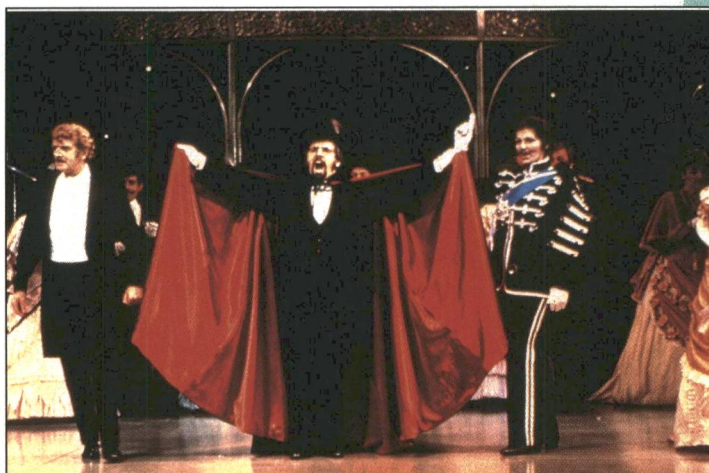

Christmas ain't over till the fat ladies sing

CABLE TV's new music and culture channel, Performance, has lined up a Mozart extravaganza for Christmas. On Christmas Day there is Die Entführung aus dem Serail with Richard Croft, Emmerich Schaffer, Aga Winka and Elisabeth Hellstrom. This is followed by Don Giovanni with Hakan Hagegard (Boxing Day), Le Nozze di Figaro with Mikael Samuelsson (27th) and La Clemenza di Tito (28th). All the Mozarts start at 8.00pm. Another highlight this month is the first showing of Johann Strauss's operetta Die Fledermaus on Saturday 5th, starring Joan Sutherland as Rosalind. ■

EASTENDERS

Welcome back, Angie! Soap lovers have missed your spunky, 'cockney sparrer' spirit.

But now that UK Gold is re-running EastEnders right from the beginning, viewers can again applaud your heart-rending devotion to hubby 'Dirty' Den Watts.

The jammy lip-stick and the tarty clothes were your badge of defiance, a way of saying that, whatever the world threw at Angie Watts, it could not destroy you.

And you even tried to do away yourself once. But surely that was just a ploy to prise two-timing Den away from his mistress, Jan. He was not worth such a sacrifice. Through all of your tears you had tried to keep up the pretence of marriage until you, the Queen Vic's landlady, hit the bottle yourself. Flirting with customers also failed to win Den back.

You even tried to freeze Jan out by pretending that you only had six months to live.

Even when you were genuinely ill after your divorce and Den made a strained visit to you in hospital, he could not resist telling you that he would not remarry you if you were the last bint in Walford!

Now you are married anew in America and probably still smiling and suffering. Give 'em hell, girl!

CABLE VISIONS

The strong-arm tactics of the Iron Lady

'IT'S GIVEN ME a chance to be the meanest person I can,' says 16-stone, six-foot three-inch Lady Battleaxe of Sky One's Knights and Warriors.

This hour-long tournament of courage and skill is played against a background of medieval pageantry and set in a hockey-sized arena of castles, catapults banners and crossbows – the Warrior Drome.

A team of 'Knights' (guest amateur athletes) compete for the honour of knighthood against a team of ruthless Warriors consisting of Chaos, Nightmare, The Plague, Pyro, the Steel Maiden, Malick, Vengeance of Venom – and Lady Battleaxe.

'I was born to be a warrior and I like humiliating the Knights,' she told Cable Guide.

'These little peons come on labelled as 'Knights' – Knight wannabes! – and try to compete against the eight of us Warriors. We do what we can to keep their score as close to zero as possible.'

And with a roster of bruising tournaments like Target Onslaught and Tug of Warriors being pitched at them, the Knights seem to have no chance.

'Sorcerer's Wheel is one of my favourites,' says Her Ladyship. 'It's a 30-foot wheel that rotates clockwise and the Knights get on there and have to run against it counter-clockwise. There are two obstacles on it that they have to hurdle, but worse than that there's a 100-pound mace ball with spikes, which we hurl at the Knights sending them flying.'

'We give the ball our Warrior wind-up,' Lady Battleaxe adds casually, 'and knock the [pauses] ... hell out of 'em.'

In real life Lady Battleaxe is Dot Jones, US track and field shot putter, weight lifter extraordinaire and long-time arm-wrestling champion. 'I haven't done track and field since the Olympic trials, but I'm still arm-wrestling,' says Dot. 'I just won the World Championships for Arm Wrestling for my 10th year on October 10th.' Respect! ■

2000 MALIBU ROAD is the newest hormone-happy mini-series to hit Sky One after Melrose Place and The Heights. This addition to the wave of hit twentysomething dramas crossing the Atlantic reflects the lifestyle of four women who share a beachfront house in California. The first episode introduces Lisa Hartman as ex-call girl Jade. Drew Barrymore stars as Lindsay, a would-be actress, and Jennifer Beals is Perry, a sophisticated criminal lawyer with problems.

The fourth housemate is Lindsay's chunky sister Joy, played by Tuesday Knight. 'I had to change my appearance, wear a fat pad, gain 50 pounds and wear a wig,' recalls Tuesday. 'I felt great about being fat.' It was a break from being typecast as a gorgeous blonde, she explained. Jennifer Beals of Flashdance fame is usually identified with movies.

She came to TV to work with director Joel Schumacher, best known for Flatliners and The Lost Boys.

It's not long before we discover that Jade has been set up on a murder rap, Perry may be getting in too deep defending an old schoolmate on a rape charge and Lindsay's career has been manipulated by the malicious Joy. ■

WE LOVE SKY SPORT – the football is great! The one bad thing is that dreadful man Andy Gray. Could someone please shut his mouth with sticky tape. He spoils all our games.

Star gazing

I AM A GREAT fan of Star Trek and Star Trek: The Next Generation. I would like Sky to show all the Star Trek films – 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 and maybe next year number 6. Sky seems to have such things as all the Julia Roberts films on in one month, such as Mystic Pizza, Sleeping with the Enemy, Flatliners, etc. Why not all the Star Trek films?

Bodies in Motion commotion

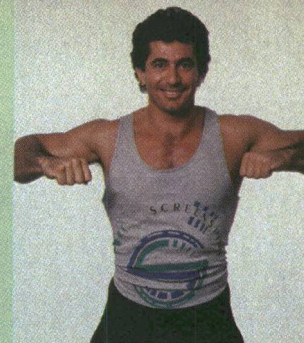

I HAVE COME back from holiday to find that Eurobics: Bodies in Motion is no longer being shown. Can you tell me if it is coming back as I enjoyed the programme very much. It was doing wonders for my figure – Screensport, please bring it back!

Judy Bronson, Enfield, Middlesex

I PICKED UP my new edition of Cable Guide and was extremely disappointed to find that Eurobics on Screensport had finished. I have been following the programme for about six weeks. It has been the only exercise programme to get me motivated and just as I am seeing some positive results it disappears! If I had realised it was going to stop, I would have had a recording of each set of exercises so that I could have carried on.

E Thomas

Screensport has this year shown all the Eurobics programmes that have been produced. They are rerunning the series starting this month.

Another fit-up!

WHAT HAS happened to Aerobics on the Lifestyle Channel? As a mother with four children with little chance of getting out to an aerobics class on a regular basis I found the work out with Cynthia Keneluk was ideal. She didn't make me feel a total idiot for being overweight. What a shame she was changed for someone else. Now it seems the only channel with aerobics is Sky Sport. None of the family is interested in sport, certainly not enough to pay extra for Sky Sport.

A Bennett, Morden, Surrey

Lifestyle intends to bring Aerobics back though no date has been fixed. Why not try Screensport's Eurobics?

Who's hot and who's not in the WWF

The top story this month has to be the recent crowning of Bret 'The Hitman' Hart as WWF Heavyweight Champion. Before a triumphant home crowd in Alberta, Canada, the Hitman beat Ric Flair with his patented 'Sharpshooter' (a version of the Boston crab hold). Fans at this venue witnessed not only the Hitman making WWF history (now he has held Intercontinental, Tag Team and Heavyweight belts) but also a rare submission from Ric Flair, who is still in my opinion the greatest professional wrestler in the USA today.

The WWF Tag Team belt has been won by Money Inc, who defeated the Natural Disasters. As a direct result of this match the Nastyboys have dispensed with manager Jimmy Hart. They felt the title match should have been theirs.

At last I can report that negotiations are under way to finalise the contract of Marty Jannetty to return to the WWF. At a most recent TV match in America, Jannetty appeared ringside to taunt old adversary Shawn Michaels. Keep your eyes peeled because it is going to happen – Michaels v Jannetty.

Fan favourite Sergeant Slaughter returned to the WWF last month as a guest referee and security advisor. Why not in the ring? Well good old Sergeant Slaughter needs a rest from combat.

Terence Taylor (Red Rooster) has returned as part of the WWF-USWA co-operative and Bob Backland, former WWF Heavyweight Champ, is back after five years in retirement. Some critics say he is too old at 43. On a personal note, I feel the critics might be right this time.

The WWF Royal Rumble is set for late January 1993 and the WWF European Rampage III is scheduled for April 1993. More on these at a later date.

The Undertaker v Kamala battle continues on the North American tour with victories for the Undertaker being somewhat predictable. The Undertaker is a much harder, rougher competitor, like Davy Boy or Jim Duggan.

WWF star Irwin R Shyster has been competing in the USWA- WWF co-operative but suffering heavy losses.

The Atomic Kid, whom I mentioned some weeks ago, continues to get crowds buzzing. This aerial technician is proving he has what it takes to be in the top wrestling circuit in the world.

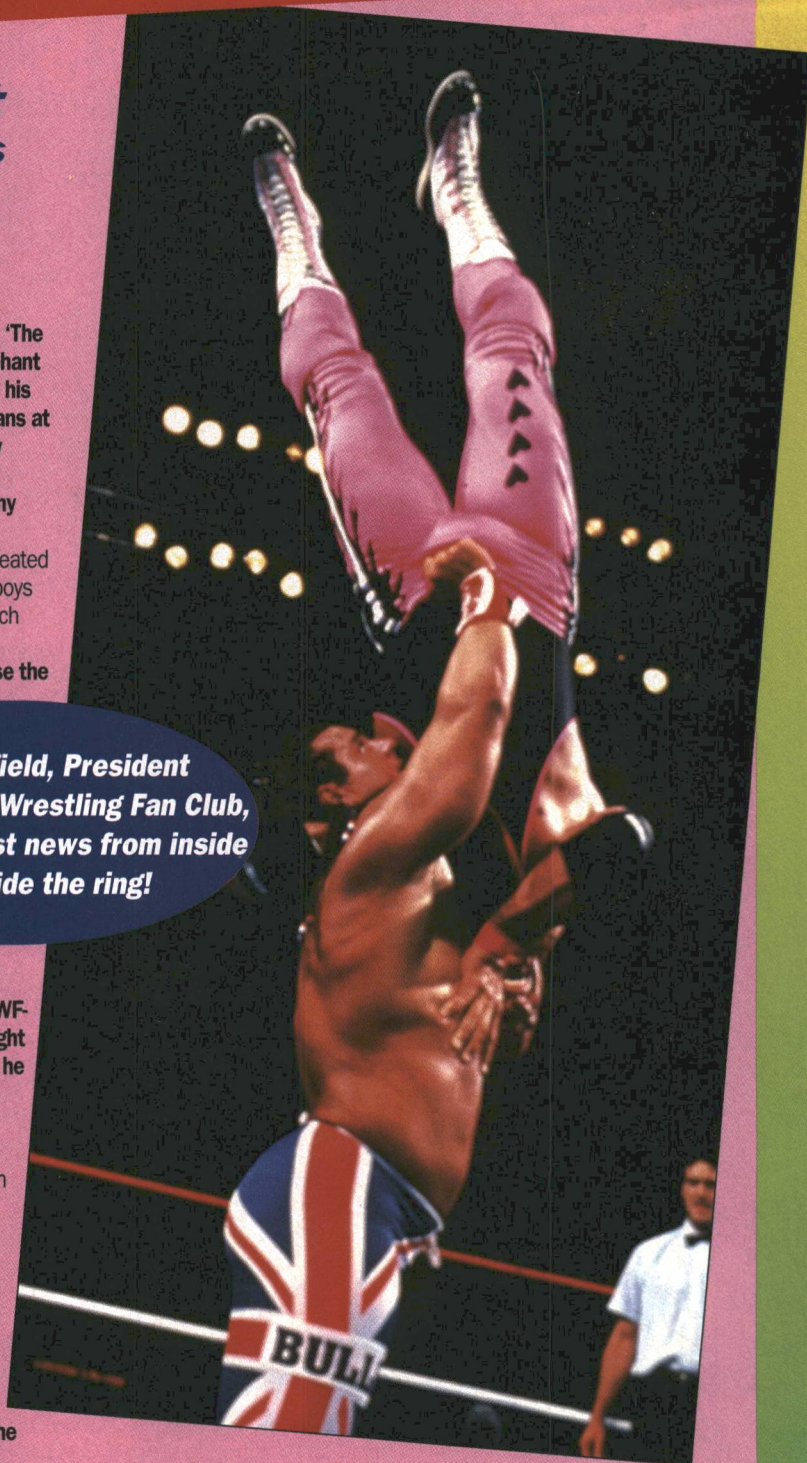

Crush (real name Bryan Adams) the giant Demolition star is becoming more and more popular with fans worldwide and it would seem he is on a roll in winning tough matches. But I feel his tag team days are numbered. When he was one third of the Demolition squad he was, in my opinion, at his peak. At 320 pounds and 6'8" tall he should now stick to singles competition.

According to my research manager Harvey Wimpleman is now ranked number one in the unpopularity stakes. Not since Bobby 'The Brain' Heenan has a manager been so unpopular. While on the subject of Wimpleman, his former star Sid Justice has resurfaced and given his reasons for departing the WWF. He said he felt he was not given the title shots or the appreciation he deserved. In other words, the WWF management let him down.

As Cable Guide goes to press Justice is still retired. But who knows? Money talks!

Happy Christmas and a prosperous New Year. ■

Red and Blue all over

Former Liverpool captain Tommy Smith gives a taste of what it is like to be in the hurly-burly of an Everton-Liverpool clash

'IT WAS ALWAYS hard,' says former Liverpool skipper Tommy Smith of the Merseyside derby. 'Everyone got stuck in that little bit extra.'

'No one ever had a good game. It was always the team performance that won the game. It was a great big battle on the pitch.'

This month Sky Sport's cameras will be relaying live all the drama of Merseyside's passionate local dust-up on Monday 7th.

'On derby day anyone can win,' says Smith. 'It all depends on what happens on the day and if you had a good night's sleep.'

Everton looked to be the more composed side at the start of this season until defeat at White Hart Lane launched a disastrous run. Liverpool, in a transitional period, have not done themselves proud and were more likely to lose, Smith suggested when Cable Guide spoke to him in October. However, since then their fortunes were reversed as Everton plunged into the relegation zone amid an unseemly falling out with striker Tony Cottee.

'I think it will be a draw,' Smith predicted. 'Both sides at present are not the best in the League.'

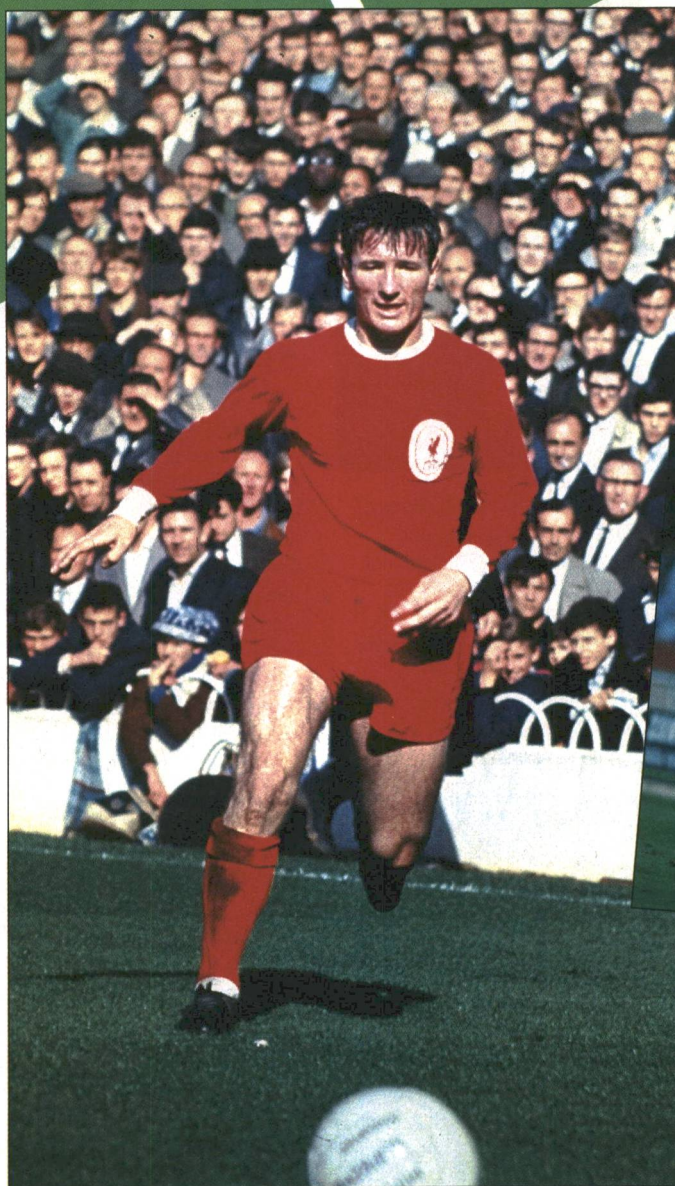

It was more clear cut during Smith's time during the Seventies. 'When I was playing Everton did not often control the games. We controlled them and won most of the games.'

'Most of the time Everton were struggling and we used to take them to task. In the early Sixties Everton had won far more often than us but by the time I retired we had overtaken them.'

There was one crucial derby that Smith admits the Reds should have lost – the 1977 FA Cup semi-final.

'The games were at Maine Road,' he recalls. 'We drew 2-2 on Saturday and beat them 3-0 in the replay.'

'Basically, Everton should have won but Clive Thomas disallowed a Brian Hamilton goal in the first game. I still haven't got a clue why it was disallowed.

▲ Tommy Smith playing for Liverpool

'It was a hard game.'

Smith, not one noted for the delicacy of his tackling, says there was rarely time to be nervous amid the fray. 'When you're young you get very uptight before a game but as you get older you get used to it. Nerves come into it when the whole team is not playing well.'

Today Smith visits both teams' grounds on match days to report for the Liverpool Echo. 'I have been accepted by the Everton fans. Well, I mean I can get to Goodison without anyone trying to kill me.' ■

Labomba on target ?

THE WORLD CUP skiing season is a worldwide event taking the men and women of the tour to 10 countries in three continents.

Alberto Tomba – Tomba Labomba – is the current golden boy after his gold and silver medal performance in the Albertville Olympics earlier this year. His flamboyant character is coupled with a near-faultless technique. And for girls it could be Norwegian Finn-Christian Jagge, who took the slalom gold in Albertville.

For all-round ability in the four disciplines, Marc Giardelli has long ruled the roost. Paul Accola of Switzerland, however, is now in a position to dominate for a few seasons. He was last season's overall World Cup winner.

The women's competitions are equally competitive. Germany's Katja Seizinger and Switzerland's Heidi Zurbiggen (sister of Pirmin) will feature in the individual races.

Overall champion Petra Kronberger of Austria is ready to be challenged this season while Switzerland's Vreni Schneider and Olympic gold medallist Pernilla Wiberg of Sweden will certainly win some races.

Coverage of World Cup Skiing this season will be more comprehensive than ever with Screensport going ski crazy and broadcasting 41 World Cup skiing races – and every one of them is live.

Screensport's Ski Sundays continue throughout December with just three races in total during January and February before the end-of-season run-in is broadcast in full.

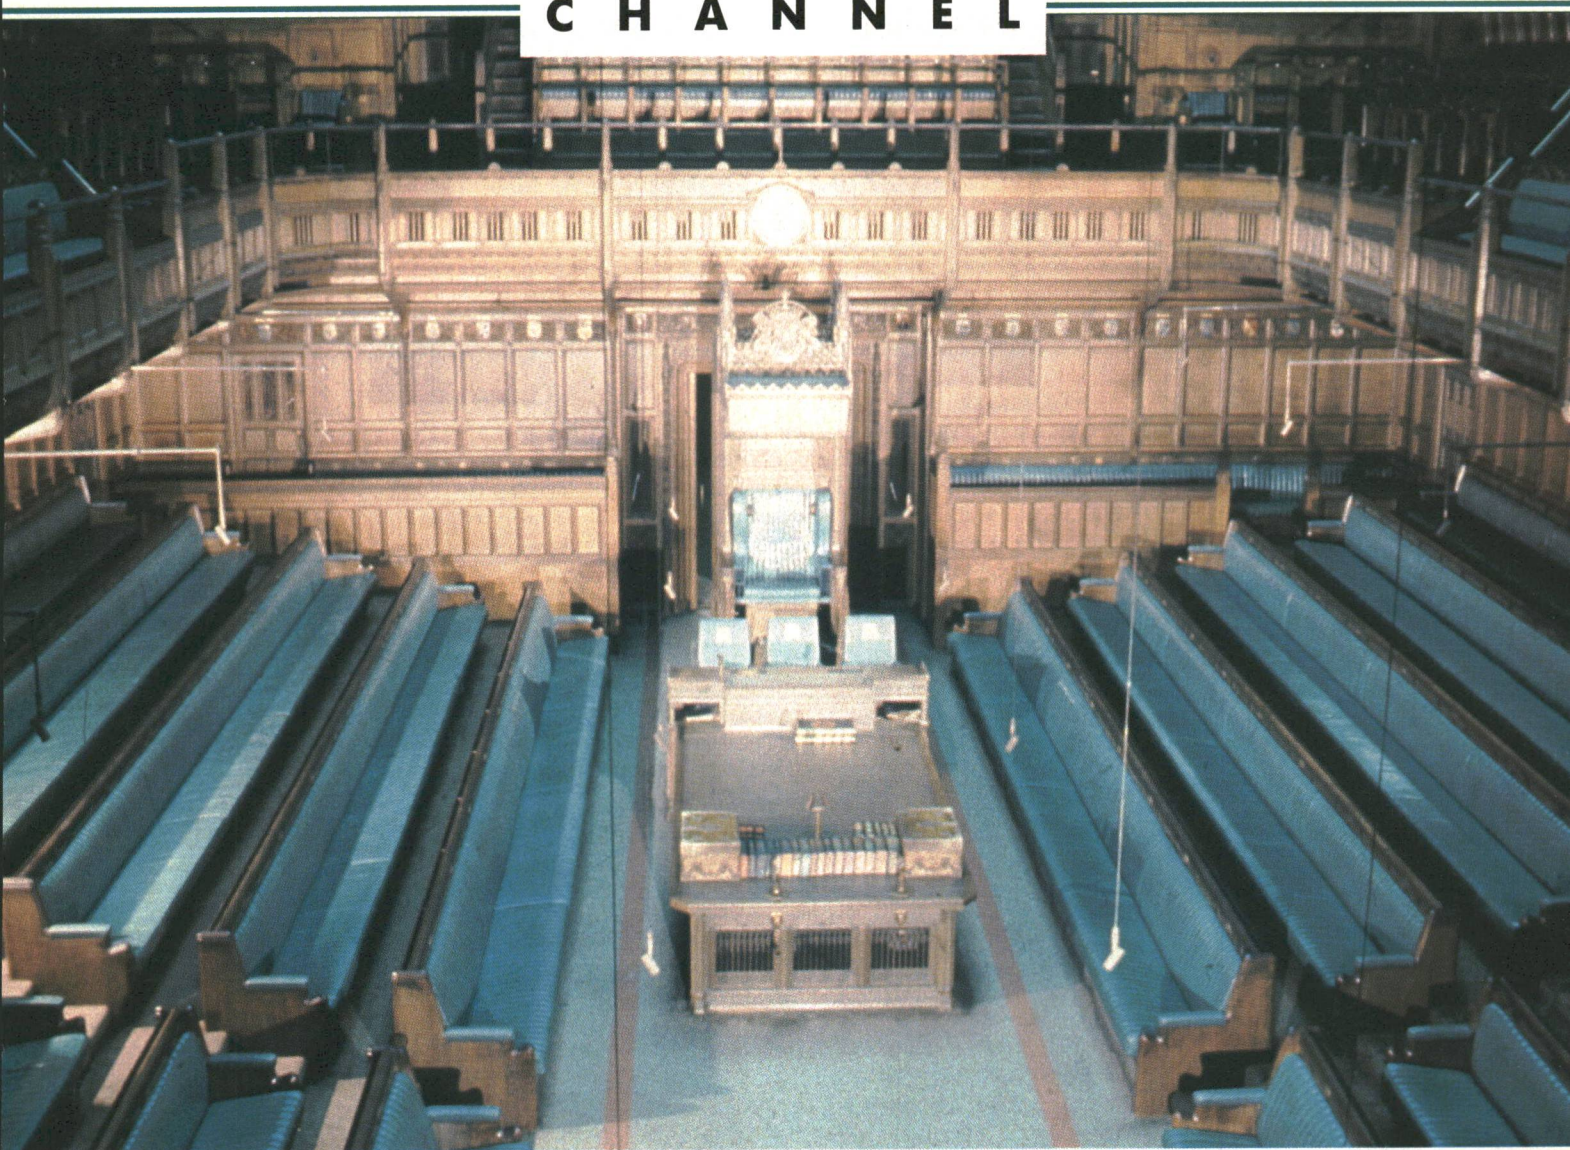

The live Sunday shows from Europe will start in the mornings while the six North American races will be perfect lunchtime viewing. There will also be mid-week preview and review reports (see listings starting on page 56). ■

EASTENDERS

● Two famous episodes, when Angie and Sharon walked out on Dirty Den and which were shown by the BBC mid- and later-evening on Christmas Day 1986, attracted record audiences of 29.5 and 31.1 million.

● Wendy Richards (who plays Pauline Fowler) and Gretchen Franklin (Ethel Skinner) both appeared in the Beatles film Help! 20 years before re-uniting in Albert Sqaure.

THE BILL

● The pilot episode of The Bill was broadcast in 1983 in the Thames TV Storyteller slot. That episode was entitled Woodentop, the CID slang word for uniformed police.

● For the first three years of its life editions of The Bill were an hour long. Thames's decision to switch to year-round, twice-weekly half-hour slots, in the style of the BBC's legendary Z Cars series, has seen it remain on the screen since July 1988.

DALLAS

● The famous 'Who Shot J R?' episode was seen in more than 41 million US homes, making it at that time the largest ever audience for a single TV programme. And no one, not even the cast, knew who had shot J R until the broadcast because the producers had filmed at least five alternative versions. It turned out to have been Kristen Shepard, Sue Ellen's younger sister (played by Mary Crosby, daughter of Bing). The revelation, after months of tabloid speculation, even got a mention on the Nine O'Clock News.

● J R stood for John Ross.

Those former cut-throat ratings rivals, Thames TV and the BBC, have joined forces and pooled their treasure-troves of classic programmes to create UK Gold. This new channel – the first of its kind in Britain – will be packed with 20 hours a day of much-loved comedy, drama, soaps, children's programmes and light entertainment. Viewers have the chance to relive some favourite TV moments: the break-up of Dirty Den and Angie in 'EastEnders'; the shooting of J R in 'Dallas'; and the passions and intrigues of 'Neighbours' Jason and Kylie before they became big stars.

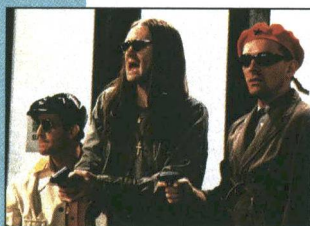

COMEDY

BREAD

Carla Lane's popular series featuring the escapades of a Liverpudlian family headed by the redoubtable Nellie Boswell (Jean Boht). The Boswell clan – Grandad, Joey, Adrian, Jack, Billy and Aveline – are often out of work but never out of ideas for making money. Imagination and a little gentle skulduggery help the close-knit Boswells to survive and thrive.

THE YOUNG ONES

Ben Elton's surrealistic and anarchic comedy focuses on the lives of four students renting in a run-down house in North London. Neil the hippy (Nigel Planer), Rick the activist and Cliff Richard lover (Rik Mayall), Vyv the punk (Ade Edmondson) and Mike the smoothie (Christopher Ryan) find themselves in increasingly bizarre and hair-raising dilemmas.

Landlord Jerzey Balowski (Alexei Sayle) and a number of pop bands appear on the slightest of pretexts.

AFTER HENRY

TILL DEATH DO US PART

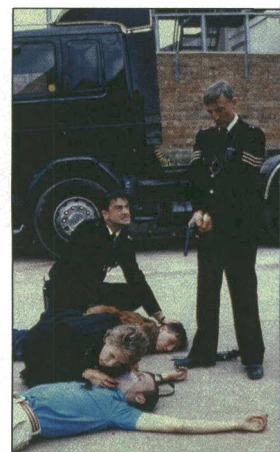

Life in the company of the East End's most famous loud-mouth and bigot, the inimitable Alf Garnett (Warren Mitchell) and his long-suffering family. Starring Dandy Nichols as his 'silly old moo' and Una Stubbs as his dissenting daughter.

SOAPS AND SERIALS

THE BILL

One of Thames Television's most successful drama series, The Bill is centred around the ups and downs of the day-to-day working lives of the policemen and -women at a specially created police station called Sun Hill. And in an area where law and order are given scant respect, it's a tough and unrelenting job keeping crime off the streets – not to mention keeping peace within the station itself. Filmed extensively on location in the streets of London.

DALLAS

The series that became a byword for glamour, glitz and skulduggery, Dallas is one of the most popular soaps ever made. It is set in the money-drenched world of the oil and cattle-rich Ewing clan. A life of raunch and ranch where deals and faces are struck hourly. Back at the start of the drama, Bobby (Patrick Duffy) has recently shocked the family by secretly marrying Pamela (Victoria Principal), the daughter of his father's enemy.

EASTENDERS

Cast your mind back to the days when Angie (Anita Dobson) and Dirty Den (Leslie Grantham) were pulling pints and lovers at the Vic. Set in the imaginary London Borough of Walford, EastEnders centres on a multi-racial community. When Arthur Fowler (Bill Treacher) had a breakdown and smashed up his living room, 30-million British fans were glued to their sets, more than the number that switched on to find out who shot J R.

NEIGHBOURS

This is a trip back to the beginning of the hit soap that is currently approaching episode 1600 on BBC1. Featuring Ramsay Street and the drawing back of curtains to reveal the loves and dramas of three Aussie families and their neighbours.

YEARS!

UK GOLD

UK Gold begins with the very first series of these and other great soaps and dramas, including the first 'Dr Who', starring William Hartnell. The programme schedule has been designed to make viewing easy and convenient for cable viewers by placing soaps, comedies, dramas and the rest in the same slots every day. For example, at 6.00pm there is drama followed by an hour of comedy, followed by 'EastEnders' with more comedy at 8.30pm. So, from now on you don't have to be Dr Who to be able to step back in time and enjoy some of the best TV programmes ever made!

CASUALTY

Described by the Daily Mirror as the 'drama that grips the emotions as tightly as a surgeon's clamp with its starkly realistic view of hospital life and death'. Oscar-winner Brenda Fricker heads the cast of this true-to-life story of a busy city hospital. The self-contained episodes cover controversial medical and social issues in absorbing human dramas.

TENKO

Set in a Second World War Japanese prisoner camp for women, Tenko (the Japanese for roll-call) concentrates on the desperate plight of the once-pampered British ex-pats in Singapore. This survival drama shows the wives of planters, servicemen and missionaries living together in cramped conditions in the jungle facing sickness, torture and starvation.

THE ONEDIN LINE

One of the BBC's best-remembered series. The Onedin Line charts the changing fortunes of a Liverpool shipping family, led by the ambitious

James Onedin (Peter Gilmore). The drama develops against a background of industrial transformation, trade speculation and political upheaval. Historically authentic and shot on location in the Virgin Islands, the Azores and Helsinki, the Onedin family dramas match the storms offshore.

BERGERAC

The fast-moving detective drama set on the beautiful island of Jersey and starring John Nettles as charismatic sleuth Jim Bergerac. A reformed alcoholic who drinks orange juice and drives a 1949 Triumph Roadster, Bergerac is also a tough professional Detective Sergeant in the Bureau des Etrangers.

CHILDREN'S CLASSICS

THE CHRONICLES OF NARNIA

Narnia is a fantasy realm full of marvellous surprises – nymphs, giants, dragons and witches. a land of talking animals and glittering castles, where boys and girls can become kings and queens. This adaptation of the classic novels of C S Lewis – in which children from war-hit England travel to an alternative world where Aslan the talking lion rules supreme – has enthralled children aged 7 to 70.

DR WHO

An outcast Timelord with no name who roams the dimensions of space in a Victorian police box may seem like an unlikely premise for one of Britain's longest-running television series, but Dr Who has been a perennial favourite since it first appeared in 1963. A science-fiction soap and classic children's thriller all rolled into one.

RAINBOW

Well-loved children's television hosted by Geoffrey Hayes and ably supported by Bungle the teddy bear and Zippy and George – the hard man/soft man team of British puppetry. With musical interludes by Rod, Jane and Freddy.

DANGERMOURSE

The British-made cartoon starring the world's greatest detective, Dangermouse, and his faithful assistant, the confused and panic-stricken Penfold. They operate from a secret base in a post box in London's Mayfair.

NEIGHBOURS

● Aussie-born Neighbours creator Reg Watson worked for 20 years in Britain and while here created another early-evening soap, ATV's Crossroads. That is why the signature tunes of both soaps were written by Tony Hatch.
● Neighbours nearly died after just six months when its financiers, Australian Channel 7, axed it. Rival station Channel 10 agreed to pick up the rights only if the producers initiated a re-vamp, which came in the form of Kylie Minogue and Jason Donovan.
● The soap has been showing in Britain since the launch of BBC daytime television in 1986.

TILL DEATH DO US PART

● In the first episode – a one-off shown on the BBC's Comedy Playhouse in 1965 – the family's surname was Ramsey. This gave Warren Mitchell the name Alf Ramsey, also the name of England's then football manager. So when the first proper series began in 1966 it was changed to Garner.

BLESS THIS HOUSE

● As Sid Abbott – father, husband and lover of women, beer and Chelsea FC – this was one of the last major TV roles for the great Sid James, veteran of so many Carry On films and TV sitcoms.

THE BROTHERS

● This BBC soap-drama ran for seven series over almost five years. By 1975 it needed a tonic, which arrived in the form of Kate O'Mara (later to revive Dynasty) and Colin Baker (a future reincarnation of Dr Who).

Millionaires are among the most successful people in the world but their success ideas have always up until now been the most closely guarded of all secrets. One thing is for sure however, THEIR HIDDEN SECRETS MAKE THEM MILLIONS!

Two and a half years ago I became friends with a retired self made multi millionaire. He was thirty eight years old and drove a Rolls Royce Bentley Turbo. As a contrast I was 25, down on my luck, and going nowhere. I was in a hole and financially embarrassed.

Today things have changed. I now own a portfolio of investment properties, drive a BMW Sport and control a group of successful companies. As well as enjoying at least three holidays a year at my own private villa, if I work three days a week then I consider myself busy. In under 3 years I have gone from being nearly broke, to becoming a wealthy man.

WHAT HAPPENED TO CHANGE MY FORTUNE? Let me tell you. When I first met my friend, his success puzzled me because he seemed to spend more time on holiday than he spent at his office. Yet he was making a fortune! Due to his wealth and the fact that I was no threat to him, he agreed to teach me his methods for making money. He showed me a system that he had used for six years. He told me that if I followed his system then I would be GUARANTEED to make a fortune, more money than I had ever dreamt of. It sounded so simple that at first I dismissed it. I thought that if it was that easy then why wasn't everybody doing it? I did nothing, until about a month later when I realised that I still wasn't making any money but I was a month older. I then started to think again about my friend's Rolls Royce, his mansion and his lifestyle. The mere fact that all he was asking me to do was try his system was enough to spark my curiosity.

THE RESULTS WERE AMAZING! Within seventeen days I had made £5,600. The next month I doubled that amount, and the month following that I gave up my full time job because I knew that the money that I had made was obviously no fluke. Now I work one week out of four and live in luxury. I earn more money in a fortnight than I used to earn in a year. When I was asked by an old colleague where I'd come across such wealth, I explained that the system was perfectly legal. I then outlined what he would need to do to try it for himself, bearing in mind he had no business experience whatsoever.

IT WAS INCREDIBLE. He made

£3,200 in TEN DAYS and he has not looked back

I then decided to put my system down in print, in an easy to follow, step by step format that would allow anybody who wanted to, a chance to earn a fortune. What do you need? Nothing. I will give you all that you need to succeed. Just learn the system that I'll give you and I GUARANTEE your success. I know you're sceptical but so were the following people before they tried my system. (Original copies of all letters available).

"Your system has generated over £5,000 so far. I was sceptical I must admit, but I was wrong."

R.H. N. Yorks

"Thank you for your help. As you predicted, it brought in £8,500 over a two month spell."

A.H. Durham

"Your money back guarantee isn't needed. It is worth its weight in gold anyway."

M.R. Barnett

GUARANTEE

I'm sure like you, these people were unsure as well, but I guess they figured that since I GUARANTEED THEIR SUCCESS or their money back that they had nothing to lose. As you can see they got exactly what they wanted and you can have it too. It is a system that could quite easily be worth thousands of pounds to you, but you can have it for £19.95. It is not so much a success philosophy as a step by step guide to getting rich. I will personally GUARANTEE your success, let me prove it. Try the system out for thirty days and I won't cash your cheque for 30 days AFTER I've sent you my material! That's how confident I am. Return it within the thirty days, in good condition and I'll return your cheque or money order UNCASHED! If you're still sceptical and you want to be totally on the safe side then POST DATE your cheque for thirty days and that way you totally eliminate your risk altogether. YOU CAN NOT LOSE!

What you do now is entirely up to you, but remember, this is not some phoney GET RICH QUICK gimmick. You will receive a practical system that will earn you a fortune! What you do now could undoubtedly be the most important thing you have ever done in your entire life. A month from now you could be earning a fortune. It's your choice. Ask yourself, "What do I have to lose?" Even if I'm wrong you've got my money back guarantee, so all you will have lost is a stamp. BUT WHAT IF I'M RIGHT?

CHARTS

What will be Number One this Christmas? Sky One's 'UK Top 40' show, presented by Capital Radio DJ Pat Sharp, reveals all . . .

When it comes to who's hot and who's top in music, Pat Sharp is right in the groove!

His UK Top 40 on Sky One is based on the weekly singles chart compiled by the Media Research Information Bureau, which is also used by independent radio. 'The chart is compiled from airplay on independent radio, and from sales of all singles at stores around the country,' explains Pat.

'It covers more stores than the Radio 1 Gallup chart, so it's much more accurate.'

The programme chronologically charts the week's Top 40 singles, playing clips from rising and holding entries, and also featuring 'bubblers' chosen from the lower reaches of the chart.

'But our show isn't just music,' Pat points out. 'The Network Chart and the Radio 1 Chart are just the music on the radio, but ours is a live show with videos. We have a competition in the middle where someone can come on and direct the cameraman to find a prize in the studio, and I've also got live calls and faxes coming in throughout the show, which come from all around the world.'

'Then we go to the videos and do predictions, and there's an oldie section where you can choose your favourite oldie video.'

Does Pat's involvement with this and other chart shows reflect his personal taste in music? 'I listen to a bit of everything, really,' he confesses. 'Most of the time I'm on the radio anyway, so I play a lot of stuff from the chart, and a lot of stuff that isn't in the chart.'

'At the end of the day we don't just play the charts; you might be better off playing a track from the Simply Red album, which has sold four-and-a-half million copies in the UK, and is the best-selling CD of all time.' Of course, Pat and the UK Top 40 team are gearing up for their Christmas special which will feature a host of holiday singles. At the time of going to press it was too early to predict the big Christmas hits, but Pat still ventured a tip.

'I'll tell you one record that is going to be released, and that's a new Freddie Mercury single that's going to be out for Christmas.'

Despite having presented at least four children's shows on TV, not to mention opening Euro Disney earlier this year, Pat is determined not to become trapped as a 'Kids' Presenter'.

'I think I'll always stay with music,' he says. 'The kiddies shows I've done have done well, but I think it's good to walk away from that and do what I do on Capital. It's good to have that so you're not tied down. I mean, Timmy Mallet's going to be a bit stuck when he wants to do something more grown up, isn't he?'

CHART BREAKDOWN?

THE BRITISH CHARTS, once the focal point of any record company, are now widely perceived to have become a nightmare.

Now the recession is turning into a fully fledged depression, far fewer people are buying records, with the result that a sale of 5000 in the first week of release will result in a chart entry. Thirty years ago a record would have had to have sold at least 20,000 to make the Top 40.

Because of the volatile nature of today's charts and the fact that records only last a few weeks, the UK charts are said by some to have lost a lot of their credibility, especially in international circles.

Of course, the age-old rivalry between the CIN/Gallup chart played by Radio 1 and printed in Music Week, and the MRIB poll broadcast by the IRN stations and used by NME is still going strong, with each claiming to be the fastest and most accurate.

Apart from the fact that most record shops now sport their own chart breakdown, the main problem with the Top 40 these days is the profusion of formats available, with 7-inch and 12-inch vinyl and cassette and CD singles all qualifying for inclusion.

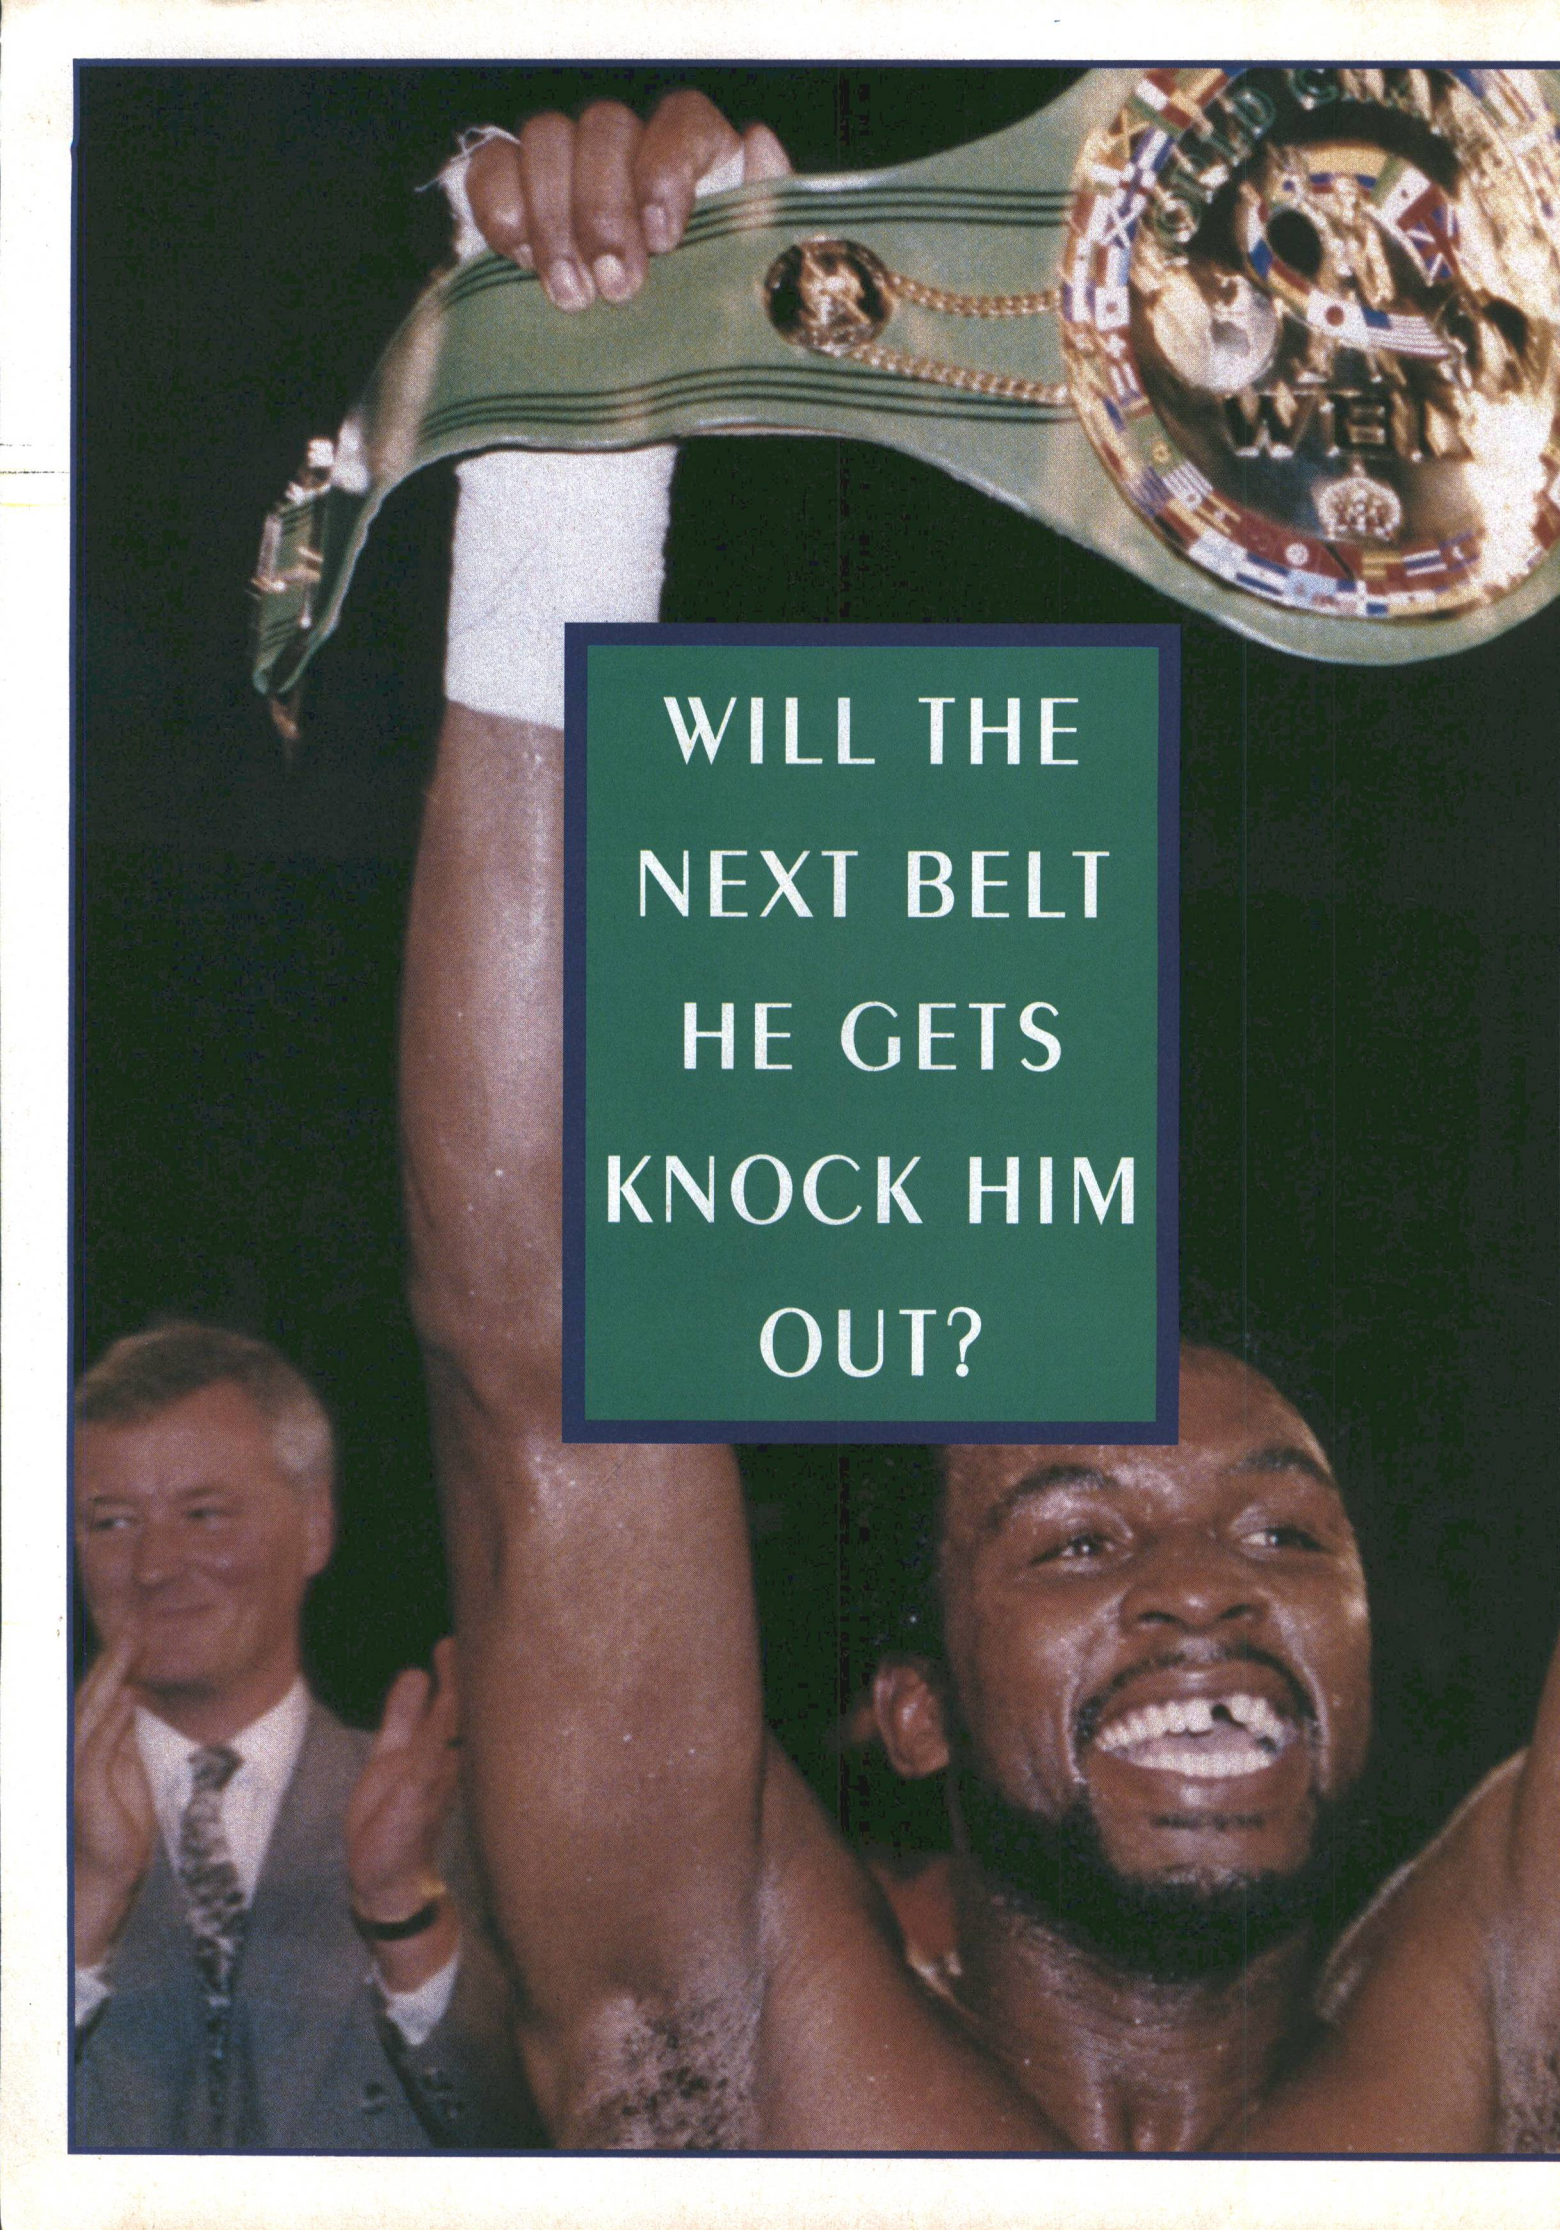

But despite the chaos and dwindling sales, at the end of the day the industry still accepts the charts as the genuine reflection of just what is and isn't selling. Chart-rigging, thanks to sophisticated electronic compiling methods, is now impossible.

WILL THE

OUT?

You can never tell with Nigel Benn. For now he's the WBC Super Middleweight Champion. But his first challenge could easily see him back in his old role of the flashy 'Dark Destroyer' prone to self destruction. Still, it's the unpredictability (plus his silly shorts) that makes Benn's live bout on 12 December worth watching. What's on the rest of our schedule should satisfy even the most square-eyed sports fan. From 17-20 December, there's live coverage of the Johnnie Walker Golf Championships in Jamaica. Faldo will be there, topping up his tan and, if he wins (if?), his bank balance by the cool $550,000 on offer. There are highlights of the final round of the World Rally Championships. It takes place wherever there's mud, ditches and dangerous corners, so expect to see Hannu Mikkola in the fast lane of the M1 around December 5th. And the big football game this month is a friendly (ha ha) between Germany and Brazil. That's live on December 16th. So relax and watch the action. And hope Nigel Benn doesn't do the same.

MTV's X-Rated Weekend

MTV's X-Rated Weekend will feature the raunchiest videos around – the hottest hunks and the coolest babes in a saucy selection of video clips.

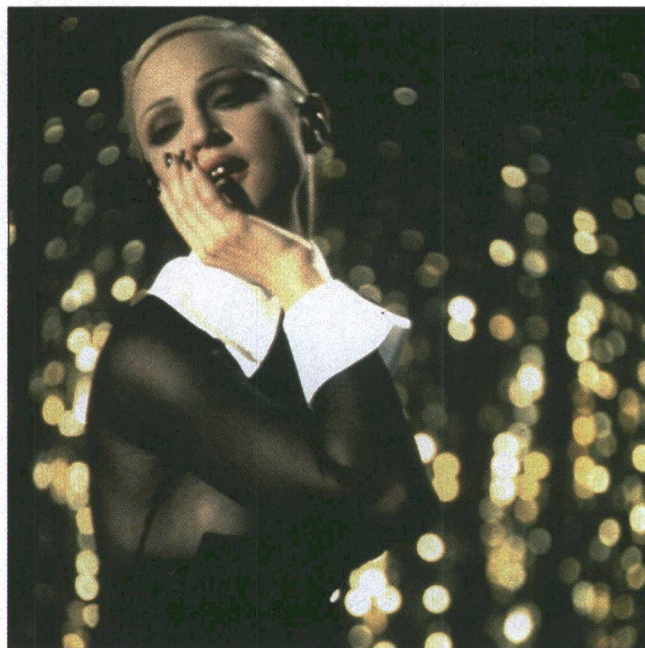

Prominent among these is Madonna, whose recent book Sex took the media by storm and whose single Erotica attained chart domination following its October release. In addition to the Erotica video, X-Rated will be featuring Justify My Love, produced by the Diva in cooperation with Andre Betts. Both tracks are taken from the Erotica album.

Another highlight is the latest vid from INXS, who seem to be living up to their name with their luscious single Taste It. The video has been banned by virtually every other network, so this is a rare treat. Taste It follows the success of Heaven Sent and Baby Don't Cry, and the accompanying video features the band in a somewhat steamy set up. Name checks, too, for Aerosmith with Love in an Elevator, Prince's Sexy MF and George Michael's controversial I Want Your Sex. ■

▶▶ MTV: MTV's X-Rated: the videos will run through the following VJ segments: Saturday 6th 7.00am–10.00am, 1.00pm–3.30pm, 12m'night–2.00am; Sunday 6th 7.00am–10.00am, 1.20pm–5.30pm ◀◀

Guns N' Roses Special

MTV's 30-minute Guns N' Roses Special covers the history of rock 'n' roll's premier band from their explosive beginnings on the LA club scene to the release of their two mega-hit albums in 1991, Use Your Illusion I and Use Your Illusion II.

Guns N' Roses were formed in Hollywood in 1985 with singer W Axl Rose, lead guitarist Slash, rhythm guitarist Izzy Stradlin, bassist Duff 'Rose' McKagan and former drummer Steve Adler.

Hailing originally from Indiana, Hollywood, Seattle and Los Angeles, they took the LA club circuit by storm and in 1986 were signed to Geffen Records.

Appetite for Destruction, GNR's full-length album debut, appeared in July of 1987, breaking into the Top 100 and remaining at Number One for five weeks. Three singles from the album went top 10 and the band won the 1988 MTV Award as Best New Artist for their Welcome to the Jungle video.

When the G N' R Lies EP went to Number 2 in the charts, Guns N' Roses became the only artists of the 1980s to have two albums in the charts simultaneously.

With Appetite for Destruction having sold 14 million copies worldwide and resided in the album charts for 147 consecutive weeks, the band contributed one track to the soundtrack album of Days of Thunder and to the Nobody's Child album, a project to aid Romanian orphans.

New drummer Matt Sorum joined G N' R in August of 1991 following the band's reluctant dismissal of Steve Adler because of drug problems, and the band added additional colour by recruiting Dizzy Reed on keyboards.

In November Stradlin resigned, but not before the band had released the Use Your Illusion I and II albums in September, which marked the first time a major contemporary recording artist had released two albums on the same day.

The albums debuted at Numbers one and two respectively, and at the beginning of 1992 the albums still reigned in the Billboard Top Ten and had sold more than six million a piece.

The Guns N' Roses story continued last month with the release of the single Yesterdays and the appearance this month of the Use Your Illusion World Tour – 1992 videos, which sees G N' R set to smash into the New Year.

MTV's Guns N' Roses Special includes footage from their recent worldwide pay-per-view concert in Paris Guns N' Roses Invade Paris. ■

The games Kat people play

YOUNGER viewers of Sky One will already be fanatical and devoted followers of The DJ Kat Show, now one of cable TV's most popular children's programmes that boasts its own Fan club.

The daily show has gone out live every Tuesday and Thursday at 3.45pm since November 10th, and the live shows are part of an exciting new format which features a computer video game called Kat Alley.

Children are called up to play the 45-second game on each show. Contestants must verbally move a video image of DJ Kat around the screen, navigating the Kat through a video maze to a fish shop, while dodging various villainous characters and pot holes on the way. The new show includes a stunning new set designed by Mike Perry, who has designed sets for Auf Wiedersehen, Pet, Perfect Scoundrels and Finders Keepers. The set is built three feet above the ground, making it the only purpose-built set for puppetry in existence in the UK.

DJ Kat also receives help from two bubbly new presenters, 20-year-old actor Simon Jermond from Perth, and 15-year-old singer/actress Marcelle Duprey from Liverpool. ■

ALL-STAR ATTRACTIONS

BLADERUNNER Sky Movies Gold Tuesday 1st 8.00pm

The original cinema version of Ridley Scott's visionary science-fiction classic. Harrison Ford stars as Rick Deckard, a bounty hunter in the year 2029, who must hunt down and neutralise five highly dangerous 'Replicants' – artificial humans with increased strength and brain capacity. Far from being a simple mission, Deckard finds himself learning some unexpected things about himself and the dishevelled world around him. Nice performance from Rutger Hauer, and an early role for Daryl Hannah.

COBRA Sky Movies Plus Saturday 19th 10.00pm

Hard-hitting action yarn with Sylvester Stallone as a super-tough LA cop who takes on, virtually single-handedly, a veritable army of members from a vicious cult of bikers. His then-wife, Brigitte Nielsen, plays the model whom he rescues from a leather-clad lunatic who promptly falls in love with him. Andrew Robinson, best-remembered as the Scorpio killer in the thematically similar Dirty Harry, plays a liberal cop who gets punched out by Sly.

THE DRESSER Sky Movies Gold Saturday 26th 6.00pm

The acclaimed British drama starring Albert Finney as an ageing theatrical star, simply known as 'Sir', who lives on his past glories while relying on his devoted 'dresser' Norman (Tom Courtenay) to organise his life and ensure his well-being. Also starring Edward Fox and Zena Walker.

IVORY HUNTERS The Movie Channel Tuesday 1st

John Lithgow stars in this African adventure as an American writer who, along with environmentalist Isabella Rossellini and African police officer James Earl Jones, investigates the disappearance of one of Lithgow's research assistants. It soon becomes clear that the missing person has been abducted by elephant poachers.

PARIS TROUT The Movie Channel Saturday 5th 11.00pm

A powerful drama based on Pete Dexter's National Book Award-winning novel. Thrice blackballed former Hollywood badboy-made-good Dennis Hopper plays Paris Trout, a local businessman in a small Southern town, who callously guns down a young black woman and her 12-year-old daughter in a fit of rage over an outstanding car payment. This act, which horrifies his wife Hanna (Barbara Hershey) and disturbs his lawyer Harry Seagraves (Ed Harris), slowly sends Trout insane, as he retreats first into denial and then into madness to avoid the implications of his shocking actions.

REUNION The Movie Channel Saturday 19th 9.00pm

A moving tale of friendship, based on the novel by Fred Uhlman, adapted for the screen by Harold Pinter and directed by Jerry Schatzberg of Scarecrow fame. Two teenage boys (Konradin, a German Count, and Hans, a 'German Jew') become firm friends at a Stuttgart boarding school in 1932, only to be separated both physically and ideologically by the rise of Hitler and the Nazi Party. Fifty years later, Hans returns to Germany to find out what happened to his childhood friend and attempt a reconciliation. Starring Jason Robards, Christien Anholt and Samuel West.

WHITE FANG Sky Movies Plus Sunday 13th 6.00pm

Ethan Hawke plays young adventurer Jack Conroy in this thrilling adaptation of Jack London's classic novel. Attracted to the icy wilderness of Alaska to join the gold hunt, Conroy teams up with a vicious wolf-dog, which he struggles to tame, for a host of adventures through the snowy landscape. A well-told, beautifully photographed and genuinely stirring tale for all ages.

Having the crime of his life

'I ALWAYS THOUGHT OF

The Godfather as the story of a great king with three sons,' said Francis Ford Coppola of his lavish and compelling trilogy of power, tradition, family loyalties, revenge and love.

'The oldest was given his sweet nature and childlike qualities, the second his passion and aggressiveness, and the third his cunning and coolness.'

Nominated for seven academy awards and set against an international background, The Godfather III is the long-awaited conclusion to the saga of the legendary Corleone family, and one of Coppola's most powerful films. Al Pacino reprises the role of leader Michael Corleone, now in his 60s, who is dominated by two passions: freeing his family from crime and finding a suitable successor. That successor could be his brother Sonny's fiery offspring Vincent, played by Andy Garcia. But Vincent may also be the spark that turns Michael's hope of business legitimacy into an inferno of mob violence.

With just about every member of Coppola's family (sister Talia Shire and daughter Sofia Coppola, among others) appearing in the credits, and boasting sizzling performances from all concerned (Diane Keaton, George Hamilton, John Savage and Eli Wallach also star), The Godfather III is regarded by some critics as a sprawling, stunning epic that provides a magnificent climax to the greatest saga in the history of American film.

▲ Al Pacino is back as Michael Corleone

Others feel that the sight of the near-psychotic Michael, withdrawing into a tatty back kitchen and wearing thick glasses and an old pullover, has strayed a little too far from the harsh Cosa Nostra reality of the first two movies. ■

Shell-shocked!

AS YOU MAY recall from Teenage Mutant Ninja

Turtles, our reptilian heroes mutated into their back-flipping, knife-throwing, wise-cracking forms after being exposed to a mystery green slime. In the sequel Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles II: Secret of the Ooze, the slime in question is under investigation by top scientist Jordan Perry, played by David Warner. Unfortunately the ooze is stolen from the prof by villainous martial artist Shredder, who develops another strain of mutants with which to subjugate the world. So with a cry of 'Cowabunga', Raphael, Michaelangelo, Leonardo and Donatello leap into action to save mankind. The Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles never really left our screens, appearing on the DJ Kat Show in the guise of Teenage Mutant Hero Turtles (Sky One, weekdays 6.00am and 3.45pm). The turtles of the sequel bear a much closer resemblance to their cartoon counterparts than the first film. There's less violence, more acrobatics. ■

Dr Lecter's Casebook

Name: Hannibal Lecter

Address: Baltimore Hospital for the Criminally Insane

Employment: Former eminent psychiatrist turned serial killer.

Criminal Record: No one knows how many victims he murdered but it is well into double figures and they include two guards, a census taker, a flautist and a patient. Also probably amused himself by releasing some of his more dangerous patients on to an unsuspecting public.

Considered so dangerous that hospital orderlies have to remove the staples from the psychiatric magazines he subscribes to. Never let outside of his cell without wearing full restraints and a mouthpiece.

Hobbies: Eating people; writing articles about psychiatry and gastronomy. Has been known to serve human organs to unsuspecting dinner guests!

Personality: Courteous, well-mannered, intellectually outstanding, uncannily perceptive. Like Sherlock Holmes, Lecter uses any scrap of information – a smell, a regional accent, a person's memories – to make far-reaching deductions and to almost read a person's mind. Perhaps his only weakness is his vanity, his desire to show off that he is cleverer than everyone else.

Cinematic Portrayal:

Manhunter, 1986, based on Thomas Harris's Red Dragon, starred Brian Cox as Lecter. The Silence of the Lambs, 1991. Anthony Hopkins stars as Lecter.

In creating the character of Dr Hannibal 'The Cannibal' Lecter, author Thomas Harris gave life to a monster to rank alongside Dracula as a symbol of evil to make your flesh creep. 'Cable Guide' has compiled a dossier on this homicidal genius to prepare readers for his TV premiere in the multi-Oscar-winning 'The Silence of the Lambs', Sky Movies Plus, Boxing Day 10.00pm. You have been warned!

▲ These guards have Lecter just where they want him . . . or do they? 'The Silence of the Lambs' is only the third film to have won the big five Oscars: best actor (Anthony Hopkins), best actress (Jodie Foster), best film, best adapted screenplay and best director (Jonathan Demme)

Diagnosis: Complete nutter. Officially, he is a pure sociopath who is impenetrable, much too sophisticated for the standard psychiatric tests to reveal much about his mind. ■

▲ Nice to eat you! Jodie Foster as Clarice Starling, the FBI rookie who has to bargain with Hannibal the Cannibal

City of angles!

LA STORY is a romantic comedy that attempts to do for Los Angeles what Woody Allen's Annie Hall did for New York.

Written by and starring Steve Martin, it is both an ironic celebration of the city's frenetic superficiality and a soft-hearted attempt to illustrate Martin's belief that 'Romance does exist deep in the heart of LA.'

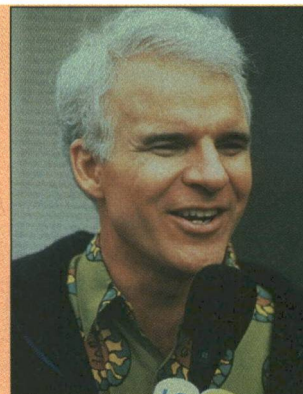

Martin plays Harris K

Telemacher, a wacky TV weatherman who becomes disillusioned with life in general and with his status-crazy girlfriend (played by Marilu Henner) and his TV job in particular.

But when British Times journalist Sara McDowel (Martin's real-life wife Victoria Tennant) comes on the scene, bringing romance back into his life, Harris begins to sort himself out, making comic observations both valid and hilarious about just what life is like in trend-conscious LA. It's great fun for Martin fans, with an army of his comedy cronies making cameo appearances, and a wild supporting performance from Sarah Jessica Parker as a gum-popping Valley girl. ■

BRAVO

EALING PAST

My toast this festive season is 'Ealing'-a salute to that little Hollywood of West London that produced some of Britain's all time best - 'The Ealing Comedies'. In the late forties and early fifties, under the guidance of Sir Michael Balcon, Ealing studio produced a wealth of irreverent, understated comedies that were guaranteed to make a visit to the local Gaumont an uplifting experience. They were typically British efforts - sophisticated, satirical and self-deprecating; films that refused to be too thought-provoking or weighty - they just played it for laughs. So raise your glasses for the first of the Ealing quartet on Bravo this Christmas - 'Whisky Galore', a wonderfully droll WW2 story of a ship that's marooned off a small Hebridean island loaded with a precious cargo of whisky. The islanders are naturally thirsting to get their hands on the stuff. Good strong cast including Basil Radford, Joan Greenwood, James Robertson Justice, John Gregson and Compton MacKenzie, who wrote the book and screenplay. Aptly renamed 'Tight Little Island' for American release. And let's top you up a little

No use sitting alone in your room this Christmas unless you're watching one of the Classics of the Seventies on Bravo. Cabaret is a unique, grown-up musical that cleverly parallels life in corrupt and troubled early-thirties Berlin, with the imaginative stage routines of the colourful Kit Kat Club. Both delightful and disturbing, and not to be missed - for Liza Minnelli, Michael York, Joel Grey and the breathtaking direction of Bob Fosse. And of course some great music. Winner of 8 Academy Awards and Oscar for Minnelli.

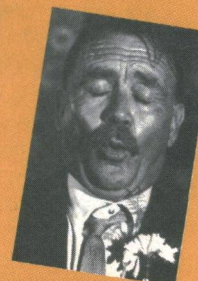

THE FAMILY WAY

1. Here comes the bride...

2. Here comes the baby...

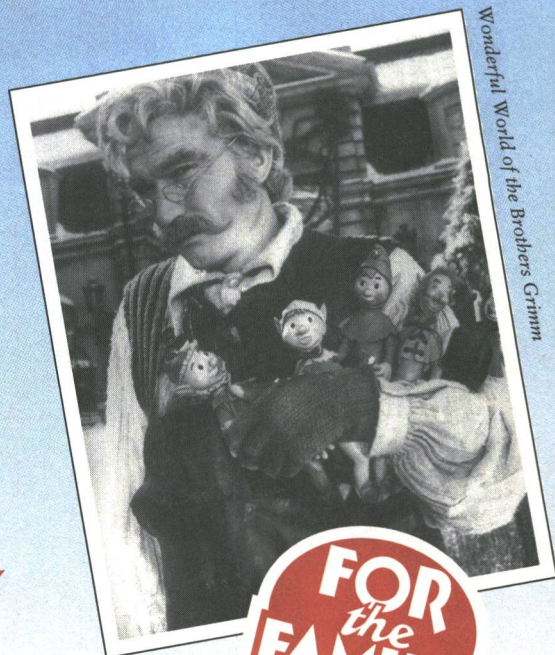

3. Here comes trouble...

John Mills thinks he knows what to expect in The Family Way, but it doesn't always work out like that for 'The Titfield Thunderbolt' - a British Rail tale with a little hope, as the villagers of Titfield refuse to let their old railway line be closed, but instead decide to run it for themselves, in competition with the local bus route. Crisp script and some memorable performances released it as High and Dry, but that's no way to spend Yuletide, so lets crack open Christmas properly with the Marx Brothers. Yes, it's champagne time... vintage stuff this Christmas Day on Bravo when Groucho, Chico and Harpo cause merry mayhem as only they know

ENTERTAINING MR SLOANE

The Go-Between

CABARET

The Go-Between - is an enchanting Edwardian love story of an illicit love affair, and the boy who becomes the messenger, running notes between the aristocratic Julie Christie and the humble farmer Alan Bates. Superbly atmospheric direction by Joseph Losey.
Entertaining Mr Sloane - from the entertaining pen of Mr Joe Orton comes this irreverent black comedy with wonderful performances by Beryl Reid and Harry Andrews who, as brother and sister, both fall for the new male lodger.

especially Stanley Holloway. Same again... as Mr. Holloway gives another fine performance in the classic 'Passport to Pimlico' - a saga that's full of British phlegm (or chutzpah as they'd call it in New York) when the inhabitants of Pimlico discover ancient ties with Burgundy. They promptly declare independence and are suddenly free of rationing. Fine film, great cast, good fun. And one more for the road, or rather the sea - 'The Maggie' is an engagingly wry 93 minutes-worth about an American businessman who sends his private cargo to Scotland on a rickety old ship. In America they how, in 'The Marx Brothers Go West'. Watch out for the ticket office sketch, and the rousing finale when they disassemble a moving train. This is only to be bettered by the funniest five minutes on film when the Marx Brothers cause chaos in their best ever escapade 'A Night at the Opera'. Not to be watched when you're full of plum duff (though one can always do with some flaming brandy). Seasons Greetings.

Top Marx

'THE LEADER WORE A LARGE painted moustache and affected a cigar, and his three henchmen impersonated respectively a mute harpist afflicted with satyriasis, a larcenous Italian, and a jaunty cox-comb, who carried the love interest.'

This bizarre description by SJ Perelman could only apply to the Marx Brothers, that zany family of Jewish-American comics who convulsed cinema audiences from 1930 to 1950.

Born in New York City to a Jewish taylor, the five original Marx brothers were launched as a musical team by their mother Minna, whose parents were show people.

They started out as the Three Nightingales, metamorphosed into the Four Nightingales and ended up as the Six Musical Mascots. Milton Marx, known as Gummo, was prominent, but would drop out long before the brothers entered the movies.

The Marx Brothers really clicked when they switched to comedy, but even then they endured years of hardship on the vaudeville circuit before breaking big on Broadway in the 1924 musical I'll Say She Is.

By this time they had developed the inimitable personal characteristics that found their ultimate expression in the zany, anarchic films they were to make in the 1930s.

The fast-thinking Groucho

▲ In addition to convulsing depression era audiences, the Marx Brothers had an enormous influence on later comedy writing

(Julius), the master of ad lib who took the lion share of the wisecracks, was instantly identifiable with his crouched walk, incredible painted-on moustache, roving eyes framed by steel-rimmed glasses and perennial thick cigar.

Harpo (Adolph), a gifted harpist and child-like mute, was an inventive pantomime artist with a cherubic face topped by a crazy red wig and a smile combining mischief, idiocy and utter madness. His oversize coat hid an arsenal of junk including an old-fashioned taxi horn which he sounded continually.

Chico (Leonard) wore an outgrown, modified Tyrolean outfit and played the piano with eccentric virtuosity, interpreting Harpo's visual puns and translating them into his own broken English spiced with a heavy Italian accent.

Fourth brother Zeppo (Herbert) didn't fit in with the craziness of the act and was never a part of his brothers' shenanigans, playing bland romantic roles and dropped out after the Brothers' first five films. Groucho once said that the only way to test a gag was to try it out on Zeppo; if he liked it they threw it out!

The Marx Brothers first appeared on screen in The Cocoanuts (1929), which was shot at Paramount's East Coast studios on Long Island while the brothers were still playing on Broadway. They commuted back and forth, shooting the film by day and performing on stage at night.

The anarchic, surrealistic quality of their slapstick comedy brought enormous vitality to the screen, unleashing unrestrained antics, travesties of logic and outrageous insults with an insane abandon that lifted the doomy mood of the 1930s Depression world with its universal appeal. George S. Kaufman, who wrote the script for The Cocoanuts and A Night at the Opera, did not like writing for them because of the incredible amount of ad-libbing that went on. He was once watching The

After that they went their separate ways, with Groucho appearing sporadically in movies over the next 20 years while the others made infrequent TV appearances. As Groucho once said, 'You go Uruguay and I'll go mine!' ■

Films

Bladerunner
Sky Movies Gold 8.00pm
 The original cinema version of Ridley Scott's visionary science-fiction classic, rather than the recently-released and restored 'Director's Cut'. Harrison Ford stars as Rick Deckard, a bounty hunter in the year 2029, who must hunt down and neutralise five highly dangerous 'Replicants' - artificial human beings with an increased strength and brain capacity. Far from being a simple mission, Deckard finds himself learning a few unexpected things about both himself and the dishevelled world around him along the way. Overpowering special effects compensate for the loss of detail from Philip K Dick's original novel Do Androids Dream of Electric Sheep. Also starring Rutger Hauer and Daryl Hannah.

General

Volcanoscapes
The Discovery Channel 10.00pm
 Would you live in the shadow of the world's most active volcano? Volcanoscapes looks at the plight of those who attempt to survive the burning lava path of the volcano Kilauea in Hawaii. With life-risking aerial and underwater photography, this series captures one of the most terrifying and spectacular forces of nature. Boiling lava lakes, fountains of flame and surging molten rock, still aflame under the sea, are only part of the spectacle. Earth, air, fire and water explode as Pele, the mythical Fire Goddess of Hawaii, battles against the Sea Goddess, Na Maka. The most destructive eruption of the 20th Century is an experience not to be missed.

General

The Medicine Men

The Learning Channel 12.00noon

A growing number of people are looking to natural medicine as an alternative to conventional medicine in their lives - out of concern about the side-effects and addictiveness of modern drugs, or in the belief that modern medicine is preoccupied with the treatment of symptoms and overlooks the real cause of the disease.

This series looks at the practices of natural medicine: herbalism, osteopathy, homeopathy, hypnosis, radionics, acupuncture and naturopathy. It talks to practising doctors about their origins and uses and examines the claims of patients who have been cured or helped by natural treatments and therapies. Famous people in the series who have switched to natural medicine include Seb Coe, Yehudi Menuhin and Kate O'Mara.

Racing: Formula 1

Eurosport 6.00pm

What a season it was for Britain's Nigel Mansell. His years of struggling to the top of his sport were finally rewarded with a record-breaking season: 14 pole positions, the opening burst of five straight wins, nine victories in all, and above all the championship. How typical it was that the season should end with Mansell's controversial accident with Ayrton Senna in Australia and doubts about his future. Eurosport is reviewing all of the season's highs and lows.

Troll

Sky Movies Plus 10.00pm

A strange little supernatural tale about a young girl who is possessed by the spirit of a troll that lives in the basement of her family's new home. Some funky special effects (including a great man-into-flora scene) and a laidback sense of humour make for an endearing and entertaining Gremlins clone, as various other inhabitants of the house are transformed into mischievous little creatures. Starring Michael Moriarty, Shelley Hack, Noah Hathaway, the resilient Sonny Bono and June Lockhart, best remembered as Mum to the Space Family Robinson in 1960s cult series Lost In Space.

The Go-Between

Bravo 8.00pm

Adapted from the novel by LP Hartley, this film's success is partly attributed to the collaboration between director Joseph Losey and screenwriter Harold Pinter. The film highlights the extraordinary repulsiveness of Victorian society in relation to sex and class, by looking at a young boy's involvement as a go-between in an illicit Victorian love affair between aristocratic Julie Christie and farmer Alan Bates.

Tennis:

Davis Cup Final

Eurosport 7.30pm

Who would have thought back in January that the Swiss would overcome some of the world's leading tennis nations and get to the final of the sport's top team event. Along the way they dispatched Holland, the holders France and Brazil to pit Marc Rosset and Jakob Hlasek against the US team of Jim Courier, Pete Sampras, Andre Agassi and John McEnroe. Eurosport has live coverage of this three-day event at Tarrant County Convention Centre in Dallas. It starts with two singles matches today, the doubles tomorrow, and the last two singles on Sunday.

Monday Night Football: Everton v Liverpool

Sky Sports 7.00pm

Howard Kendall has been struggling to recapture the form and confidence he instilled at Goodison Park when Everton twice won the championship during his first period as manager. The purchases his assistant Colin Harvey made, particularly the out-of-favour Tony Cottee, have proved less than ideal and the side have even flirted with the relegation zone, unthinkable for the top division's longest residents. There is more than local pride at stake today - points, points, points!

Below are general programme details - please watch your screens for changes.

Miracle On 34th Street

Sky Movies Gold 6.15pm
The classic heart-warming Christmas film about a department store Santa Claus, played by cuddly Edmund Gwenn, who may or may not be the real Father Christmas. The truth of this cannot be ascertained until the outcome of a sanity trial which is contemplating his case. Until then, Kris Kringle must convince a sceptical little girl (played by a very young Natalie Wood) that he is the real thing. Maureen O'Hara gives a spirited performance as Wood's mother, and the source of all the scepticism, John Payne woos her agreeably, and Edmund Gwenn gives a well-deserved horse-whipping to another Santa Claus who is drunk on duty!

Hollywood Wives

Sky One 8.30pm
Jackie Collins's smash hit novel Hollywood Wives comes to TV in all its glitzy, bed-hopping glamour. It all begins at a party thrown for golden era film star George Lancaster (George Stack). During the festivities, Oliver Easterne, a studio head honcho, announces the plans for his latest film. Every star begins to salivate at the prospect of being cast in Easterne's latest blockbuster, destined to become the next Gone With The Wind. Before the party is over, the scheming begins. Starring Candice Bergen, Anthony Hopkins, Angie Dickinson, Roddy McDowell, Stefanie Powers, Suzanne Somers and Robert Stack.

Sport

Football: Liverpool v Blackburn Rovers

Sky Sports 4.00pm
Graeme Souness v Kenny Dalglish. Dalglish returns to ground where he and Souness ruled the First Division as players. He deserted Anfield and later bought a new set of players at Blackburn, whose rip-roaring start to the season fell a little flat after a sequence of 0-0 draws and then a 0-2 home defeat to Spurs. Souness has not impressed many Liverpool fans with his attempts to make something of the squad he inherited from his former team-mate. Who will emerge from today's confrontation with most credit?

Football: Crystal Palace vs Leeds United

Sky Sports 4.00pm

Neither side has had an enjoyable season so far. Leeds have struggled to follow the leaders and missed out on a financial bonanza in the European Cup. But it is Palace who have been hovering above the trap door that leads from the Premier League. They notched up just one League win in the first three months of the season. This holiday season of matches is important to both clubs.

Also starring Sally Struthers (best remembered in All In The Family and Five Easy Pieces), Al Lettieri and Peckinpah regular Slim Pickens.

The Lonely Passion of Judith Hearne

The Movie Channel
11.00pm

A far-from-cheerful drama set in 1940s Dublin, with Maggie Smith as Judith Hearne, a middle-aged spinster who seeks solace from the hardships of her lonely life in the Church and in the bottle.

Romantic possibility looms large in the shape of good-humoured Bob Hoskins, but even this seems doomed to end in tears.

Also starring Wendy Hiller, Marie Kean and Ian McNeice, and directed by Jack Clayton.

General

Real World Marathon Weekend

MTV 9.00am
 What happens when four guys and three girls (real people, not actors) move into a Manhattan loft together? MTV answers this and other dramatic questions in its reality-based soap opera. The Real World follows the adventures of seven young adults set loose in New York City. Aged 19 to 25, the group moves into the loft and begins creating its own daytime and nighttime drama. The action and drama unfold spontaneously as the group discuss their careers, backgrounds, dreams, loves and hates. As sparks fly, MTV captures every moment - in the kitchen, bedrooms, bathrooms and the New York City scene. Cast members address the camera and share intimate details about themselves and their flat mates.

Defending Your Life

Sky Movies Plus 8.00pm

Albert Brooks's comedy about a middle-aged man who dies in a car crash and finds himself in Judgement City, a limbo where his life is assessed by an independent tribunal who must decide whether or not he is eligible for entry to Heaven. With Rip Torn as his lawyer, Brooks is called to the stand to 'defend his life', explaining the mistakes and misjudgements and calling attention to his scant few deeds of bravery and selflessness. While waiting for a decision which will ultimately alter the course of his death, Brooks meets and falls in love with fellow divine defendant Meryl Streep. Charming, inventive, romantic, very funny, but also reminiscent of Powell-Pressburger's A Matter of Life and Death.

Football:
Aston Villa vs Arsenal

Sky Sports 7.00pm
After the early-season excitement over Blackburn Rovers and the lack of form of last season's front-runners, Man United and Leeds, it is Villa and Arsenal who many believe are the most convincing title contenders. The attacking potential on display tonight - Arsenal's Ian Wright and Kevin Campbell and Villa's Dean Saunders and Dalian Atkinson - should guarantee a rip-roaring battle on its own.

Below are general programme details - please watch your screens for changes.

General Maude

Sky One 2.45pm

Maude personified the new feminist of the 1970s when she came thundering on to TV screens in 1972. With her dominant personality, biting one-liners and masculine mannerisms, bra-burning Maude soon became a role model for women and a classic TV personality. Beatrice Arthur stars as the formidable Maude.

Screen TEST

Giuseppe Peluso presents 'TVFM' with Konnie Huq and Gia Milinovich on TCC (the Children's Channel). His face has been featured in a 'Just 17' article on kissing. Young females may like to know that he is just 16 and unattached!

What would you most like to see on the end of your bed this Christmas morning?

It has to be the Madonna book, especially as 'Mummy' Gia wouldn't let me look at it when she reviewed it on the show.

Who would you like to see at number one this Christmas?

Although I did love the Tasmin Archer song, I think I'd like to see Madonna creep in over Christmas.

New Year's resolution?

To stop going to parties - NOT!!!

What would you change about your personal appearance?

That's an easy one: smaller feet, bigger muscles and longer hair.

With whom do you most like being?

With Konnie (at this moment I have her twisting my arm behind my back!).

When have you been most happy?

I must admit that working on TVFM gives me a great deal of pleasure. It's a lot of hard work but it's worth it when you see the results.

When have you been least happy?

When out of work and hungry. Hopefully there won't be too many more of those times.

Under what circumstances would you be dishonest?

Under no circumstances whatsoever would I ever, ever be dishonest - except, perhaps, for a few screen tests. Anything for a job!

What is your least appealing characteristic?

I'm extremely messy and keep losing things. I still live at home and my bedroom is a death trap.

What characteristic in others annoys you the most?

People that moan and bossiness. That's one benefit of leaving school, no more bossy teachers although I have to say some of the teachers we had were pretty cool.

Who do you most admire?

People who believe in what they do, like Madonna. We may not understand her but you have to admire her, making millions by showing her body. Very clever if you ask me.

Who do you least admire?

I have a thing about honesty and trustworthiness in people. So without getting too political, Maggie Thatcher doesn't rate too highly on my list of fav people.

What is your favourite film and/or TV programme?

GoodFellas and TVFM.

Least favourite film and/or TV programme?

Edward Scissorhands and The Bill (even though I've been in it).

Who is your favourite actor/performer?

Martin Scorsese and Robert De Niro. It's the Italian in me!

What is your favourite music?

I have to admit that I'm a huge Queen fan. I also love a lot of Indy and Rave music, but it always seems to be a one-hit wonder.

Your least favourite music?

Shakin' Stevens' This Old House.

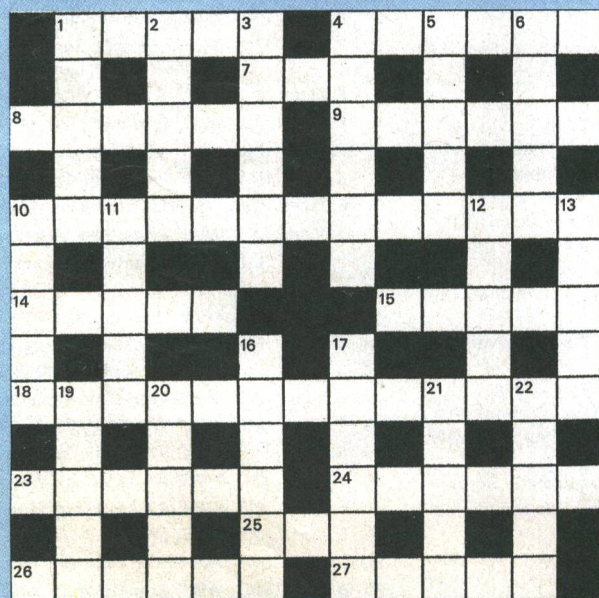

Where do you see yourself in five years' time?

Who knows? I only recently left the Italia Conti Drama School and feel very lucky to have got work so quickly on TVFM. I guess that the next five years for me will be getting my face known in the industry. As long as I'm happy and working.
